

Title of Event: “Social Workers Without Borders: International Social Work in Action”

Time Scheduled: 11:45am-1:15 p.m.

Location: Tegeler 207

Sponsor(s) and Cosponsor(s): School of Social Work, Doerr Center for Social Justice Education & Research, Social Work Association

Description of Event:

Presentations by social work students, an alumna, and faculty member who will share their study abroad, practica, and research experiences in International Social Work in China, India, Ghana, and Uganda:

- Kate Bathon (BSSW Student) on her study abroad experience in China
- Kiran Jeevan (MSW Student) on his practicum in India with YMCA Bangalore in community development
- Katie O’Brien (MSW Alumna) on her summer practicum in Ghana with West Africa AIDS Foundation
- Dr. Jami Curley (Assistant Professor) on her international research in Uganda on poverty reduction strategies with HIV/AIDS orphans